The Daily Courant.

Wedneſday, June 25. 1707.

From the Paris Gazette, dated June 25.

From the Camp at Stutgard, June 11.

THE Contributions of the Dutchy of Wirtemberg were ſetled the 6th of this Month, at 2 Millions 200000 Livres payable in 3 Months; and the little Imperial Town of Eſlingen on the Neckar 2 Leagues above Stutgard, has agreed to pay 110000 Livres. 600000 Livres have been demanded of the Countrys of Baden and Baden-Dourlach, but that Sum is not yet agreed: That Contribution and thoſe of other Countries which the Army has left behind them, will be regulated at Leiſure. In Stutgard a Magazine was found of 4000 Sacks of Meal, beſides the 10000 furniſh'd by the Regency. The Burghers have been oblig'd to declare what Baggage or other Effects belonging to the Enemy were left in their Hands, and all the Arms found in this Country have been ſecur'd. The 7th the reſt of the Army arriv'd from Pfortzheim in the Camp, with the heavy Baggage, the Artillery, and a great Convoy. The ſame Day the Marſhal de Villars march'd with a Detachment towards Schorndorf, where the Enemy lay encamp'd. The Peaſants ſeeing the General, believ'd he was follow'd by the whole Army, and gave Intelligence to the Enemy accordingly: Whereupon they decamp'd, and retir'd to Bargen, two Leagues beyond the Imperial Town of Gemund, on the Road to Nordlingen; and the Mareſchal de Villars who deſign'd only to make them remove to ſome Diſtance from Schorndorf, return'd to the Camp. He cauſes the Caſtle of Stutgard to be preſerv'd untouch'd: The Dutcheſſes of Wirtemberg ſtaid in it: They invited him to lodge there, but he excus'd himſelf, that he might not incommode them. A great Quantity of Bread and Biſcuit is making by his Order, but cannot be ready under 4 Days. In the mean time, that the Troops may not lye ſtill, he has detach'd the Marquis d'Imecourt with 2000 Horſe or Dragoons, with Order to paſs the Danube above Ulm, to put under Contribution that Part of Swabia which is beyond that River, and alſo Part of the Circle of Bavaria, and to bring off Hoſtages for it. The Intelligence we have from their Army, which is confirm'd by a great Number of Deſerters, is, that 'tis reduc'd to 16 or 17000 Men, by reaſon of Deſertion; that the Prince of Dourlach is got into Ulm with 3000 Men; and that they have left 500 Men in Heilbron, which had before no Garriſon. The ſame Advices add, that the Conſternation in the neighbouring Countries is general; and that the Margrave of Bareith had ſent ſeveral Couriers to Vienna, Berlin, Duſſeldorp, the Hague, and to the Duke of Marlborough, to deſire a conſiderable Reinforcement of good Troops; repreſenting to them the Danger the Empire is in, and that the Troops which remain'd with him are ſo diſmay'd, that he dares not expoſe them to a Battle with the French. Letters from Alſace ſay the Lines of Stolhoffen and Buhl are intirely levell'd, 14000 Peaſants having been employ'd in that Work; and that Men are kept at work with all Diligence, to make a Fort at the Head of the Bridge of Fort-Louis, on a more advantagious Ground than that where ſtood formerly the Fort of the Iſle of Marquiſat at the Head of the ſaid Bridge.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated June 28.

Heilbron, June 21. The Marſhal de Villars having ſent a Detachment to ſummons this City to ſurrender within twice 24 Hours, our Garriſon made a Sally upon them, kill'd 20 and wounded 30: On our ſide only 1 Man was kill'd and 1 wounded. The Enemy retir'd. Laſt Week the French ſent 4 Waggons loaden with Money rais'd by Contributions to Strasbourg, under a Guard of 450 Men: And they have yet great Sums to receive. The Enemy having drawn the Troops they had at Lauffen and Sturgard to their Army in the Valley of Schorndorff, have broken up from thence and are march'd towards Ulm: Magazines are ſtoring for them at Schorndorff.

Francfort, June 22. Yeſterday 4 Palatine Regiments of Horſe, and 2 of Foot, paſs'd the Main at Coſtheim, and took their march towards Heidelberg, in which are 500 Grenadiers, and as many in Manheim. Some Deputies from the Country of Wirtemberg are come hither, to borrow Money for paying the Contributions demanded by the Enemy; and 'tis ſuppos'd muſt go further to Holland. General Heiſter is arriv'd in the Imperial Army.

From the Leiden Gaz. &c dated July 1.

From the Imperial Army near Jockingen, June 22. The 17th our Army came and encamp'd here. The Margrave of Bareith order'd General Janus to continue near Gemundt with ſome Troops, to obſerve the Enemy. Yeſterday we receiv'd Advice, that General Janus being attack'd by a Detachment of the Enemy, had been defeated with the Loſs of 7 or 800 Men, and was himſelf taken Priſoner: But that the Enemy ſuffer'd great Loſs too in the Action. A Diſcovery has been made at Donawert of a Conſpiracy to deliver that Place to the French; and two of the principal Conſpirators are ſiez'd.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated July 2.

Swabia, June 24. Laſt Night the Imperial Army ſent their Baggage towards Elwangen, deſigning to retire thither this Morning. The Enemy's Army follows ours, ſo that there is continual Skirmiſhing between them. Yeſterday there was a ſharp Action between two Detachments; in which the Loſs on both ſides was pretty equal.

Hague, July 1. 'Some Swedes here do privately 'hand about certain Articles which they inſinuate 'the King of Sweden deſigns to propoſe to the 'Diet of the Empire at Ratisbon. The moſt in-'portant of them are, I. That the Elector of Ba-'varia be reſtor'd, or at leaſt that his Electorate be 'given to the King of Sweden, and he declar'd 'Elector in his Room, ſeeing he is the neareſt of 'Kin to him. 2. That the Election of Emperour 'be alternately out of the three Religions, ſeeing 'the Electoral College is compos'd of them. 3. 'That the Proteſtant Churches be reeſtabliſhed in 'Sileſia, Moravia, Bohemia, Hungary, &c, on the 'ſame Foot they were in the Time of the Great 'Guſtavus Adolphus. And 4. That the King of 'Sweden have the Sovereignity of the City of 'Bremen. Perſons of Underſtanding who have 'ſeen theſe Articles, make no Doubt that they were 'forg'd in France, in order to ſow Jealouſy and 'Diſcord between the Allies of different Religions: 'For they find one palpable Mark of that Forgery, 'in the Demand that the Proteſtant Churches in 'Hungary be reeſtabliſh'd, ſeeing that Kingdom is 'no Part of the Body of the Empire, and therefore 'the Reeſtabliſhment of the ſaid Churches in that 'Kingdom is not a thing at all proper to be men-'tion'd to the Diet of the Empire. This Reaſoning 'however does not ſatisfy ſome People of a jealous 'Diſpoſition: And indeed Men of the cleareſt 'Heads, and that are beſt inform'd, think the King 'of Sweden has at leaſt ſome Deſign upon the Em-'perour's Hereditary Countries: But they con-'jecture, that his Swediſh Majeſty will enter thoſe

'Countries

Countries upon the sole Pretence of taking that Satisfaction which the Court of Vienna decline giving him on some Grievances. The last Advices from Saxony afford some Ground for this Opinion, and tell us King Augustus has at last compleatly executed the singular Treaty of Alt-Ranstad, by promising to use no longer the Title of King of Poland, nor the Arms of that Kingdom. After this, 'tis not easy to conceive, why in a Season so far advanc'd, and while the Czar of Muscovy is Master in Poland, the King of Sweden makes no Preparation to leave the Empire, unless he has really some Design that must indirectly affect the Allies: And hence some Ministers have naturally form'd a Conjecture, that Peace between his Swedish Majesty and the Czar is not far off. Yesterday a good Sum was paid, on the Part of Great-Britain and Holland, to the Minister of Hesse-Cassel, in Execution of the Treaty for continuing the Troops of the Landgrave in Italy. The Queen of Great-Britain has also made very considerable Remittances to the Duke of Savoy and Prince Eugene, to forward their Designs against France, and has promis'd them more when they have entred that Kingdom. The Envoy of Savoy here gives us Hopes, that those Designs were begun to be put in Execution the 18th or 20th past. 'Tis advis'd from good Hands at Paris, that the Court of France are very much alarm'd at the Appearance of the confederate Fleet on the Coast of Provence, and discover themselves to be under great Apprehension that the Duke of Savoy and Prince Eugene will undertake some Enterprize of Importance on the said Coast, in Concert with that Fleet. 'Tis advis'd likewise, that the French Court will assist the Prince of Conti all they can in obtaining the County of Neufchatel and the Principality of Valangin in Switzerland, designing to make an Exchange with him afterwards for that Country, which lying Contiguous to the Franche-Comte is very much for their Convenience. The Enemy's Army in Flanders is much weaken'd by Desertion, which is so great, that for some Time the Envoy of Savoy alone has given 50 Passports a Week to Piemontois or Italians, most of whom were disarm'd or taken while the Duke of Vendome had the Superiority in Italy: And some Letters from good Hands in our Army assure us the Duke of Marlborough will not let the Enemy lye quiet many Days longer.

The first and most approved Angelick Tincture for Coughs, began to be expos'd to Sale October 10. 1704. and for more than one whole Year escap'd unmolested by Counterfeits. It is a great and stupendious Medicine, having sav'd the Lives of many, doing the Cure on the Spot after a Thousand other things fail, when it is taken into the Mouth the Cough doth instantly Cease, and after 2 Days return no more, the Truth whereof is sufficiently evinc'd by Examples of Cures in former Advertisements. N. B. This excellent Secret is no where to be had save at, John's Coffee-house in Swithin's Ally by the Royal Exchange, and at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street. Price 1 s. each Bottle.

The most excellent Tablets of a delightful Flavour and Taste, one of which at a time being only chewed or held in the Mouth, rowling it about with the Tongue, wonderfully (without the least offence or hindrance of business) purges the Head and Brain, curing all the Diseases thereof, by evacuating the Rheum or Humours, by moderate Spitting, that cause them, when all inward Medicines, Blisters, Issues, Seatons, &c. are ineffectual. In Rheumatisms, Gouts, Kings-Evil, Leprosies, Red and Pimply Faces, Itchings, Scabs, &c. they are strangely effectual, sweetning the Blood, creating an Appetite, &c. One of them used as above'd for an hour or two, will discharge near a Pint of Rheum, which continued may save the trouble and serve for the same end and better than Salivation in many cases (they being without the least grain of Mercury) and by spitting out at any time the Tablet (which never sticks to the Mouth or Teeth) the Flux immediately ceases, being very harmless and as small (only flattish) as Peas; leaving the Mouth moist, cool and refresh'd. Are to be had only at Mr. Varenne's, a Bookseller, at Seneca's Head near Somerset-House in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. the Box, with Directions.
